A PROGRAM OF KIDS AROUND THE WORLD

KIDSTORY@HOME LEADER GUIDE

We've heard true stories from our ancestors about our rich heritage. We will continue to tell our children and not hide from the rising generation the great marvels of our God - His miracles and power that have brought us all this far. Psalm 78:3-4 (TPT)

Session: Experiencing a Bible Story

WELCOME (15 minutes) Welcome everyone. Thank parents for coming and for their desire to raise up their children in Christ. This can be illustrated by stretching out a string that is 168 inches long (14 feet), each inch representing an hour. Then place a 1 inch object on the string to represent the one hour they are in church. Have parents make observations as to where the greatest impact is. Who has more time, more impact? After the initial welcome, it might be good, as you continue with your welcome to have a simple activity for younger children like drawing a picture of their family. Where would Jesus be if you were to draw him in your family? What would He be doing? If there is time, have the children add Jesus to their picture. Read Psalm 78:3-4 on cover. When you hear it, what does it invoke in you? What they can expect from this workshop ...	Thank parents on attending as it shows their desire to be the spiritual leaders of their homes. Parents have the greatest influence on their children in all aspects of life. Do visual illustration through string and clip. God created and ordained the family before He ordained the church. The church is a community of families. Each week there are 168 hours. Depending on their age and activity, children are home approximately 110 hours. How many hours are they in church? Maybe 1 hour each week. We believe parents want to lead their children spiritually but have a difficult time knowing what to do. What is a game plan that can be simple yet effective in creating an environment where everyone encounters the love of Jesus? That is what we are going to discover today. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fun • Start using it right away with things you have at home or acquire at a dollar store • Engage everyone in the family • Draw you closer to God and one another • It is simple and easy to share with others
Jesus Blesses the Children (30 Minutes) Lesson included for leading workshops Debrief (5 minutes)	Demonstrate with everyone in large group <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • My Story • God's Story • Let's Connect (1-2 questions max) • Huddle Up Allow for sharing what the experience was like for them
Review KIDStory@Home Sheet (15 min) pg 5 in the Family Guide (FG)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Highlight value and importance of each step • Reference additional material in their booklet while talking about each section • Expressions sheet: (pg 9 FG) each person demonstrates one and the family guesses what expression they are making • Story Drawing for Telling or Retelling pg 8 FG • Go through one lesson as an example

Session: Practicing a Bible Story

The Lost Sheep: Luke 15 (30 minutes)

Using the KIDStory@Home Family Guide, facilitate the parents through the KIDStory@Home format for this Bible story.

Assign different Retell activities to each family. Allow 10-15 minutes to prepare and then each family demonstrates their Retell. Allowing each family to practice and demonstrate different Retell activities creates a fun and interactive environment.

If the workshop is just with parents, have them get into a "family" of four people. Each person can take the lead in one of the four steps

- Parent reads story 2 times
- Decide what facial expressions and voice inflections you might use.

My Story: have them share a high and low
God's Story:

- Brief background on the story,
- Each family acts out the story,
- A group Retell game
- Assign a different retell that each family will do for everyone. Give time to prepare.

Retell Activities to choose from:

- Drama
- Dance
- Play Doh
- Pipe Cleaners
- Hand motions
- Designate a certain amount of objects in room
- Drawing
- Pantomime
- Create 2 more games
- Dramatic Reading
- Snap Chat - repeat verbiage 3 times
- Song

Let's Connect: each family member asks a question to their family

Huddle Up: Facilitator guides parents to pray and bless the children

Closing (15 minutes)

Q & A

Cast a vision for having their homes be used as a KIDStory Club for other children and families. Jesus told us to go throughout the area - the highways and byways and invite people. It's usually much easier for people to come to your home than a church setting.

What is God asking you to do in relation to what you have learned today. Have them right down their first step and pray over it with their family.

Different ways to have a KIDStory Club:

- With your family
- Invite other families
- Invite children from community
- Another way is _____

② GOD'S STORY

Retell the Story

Story Review: Go back through the Story by using questions, fill-ins and correcting wrong statements.

Rope Game: Get a piece of rope that is 15 feet long and tie the ends together. Have the children get in a circle with everyone holding on to the rope. Start moving the rope in one direction. When you say "STOP," the person closest to the knot has to say the next part of the story. Continue doing this till the story is told.

BACKGROUND TO THE STORY

A disciple is someone who follows everything their teacher says and does. Listen to how the disciples respond to certain people when they are with Jesus. Where Jesus lived, children were not thought of very highly.

BIBLE STORY

Some people brought their little children to Jesus so he could touch them, but his followers told them to stop. When Jesus saw this, he was upset and said to them, "Let the little children come to me. Don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to people who are like these children.

I tell you the truth, you must accept the kingdom of God as if you were a little child, or you will never enter it." Then Jesus took the children in his arms, put his hands on them, and blessed them.

③ LET'S CONNECT

Select 1-2 Questions

- What did you like about this story?
- What emotions do you think the children had throughout the story?
- I wonder what Jesus blessed the children with. What do you think he said to them?
- Imagine that you are one of those children. What feelings do you have?
- What would you want Jesus to bless you with?
- What do you feel is really important to Jesus?
- What does this story tell us about Jesus?
- What do you feel like the Holy Spirit wants you to do with what you learned today?
- Who can you tell this story to this week?

④ HUDDLE UP

Jesus bless these children with your overwhelming joy and love.

Welcome to KIDStory@Home

Generation after generation stands in awe of (God's) work;
each one tells stories of Your mighty acts.

Psalm 145:4 (MSG)

We recognize your desire to be the spiritual leader in your home but you may not know where to start. It seems best to rely on the local church leaders to take on this role but quite honestly, you have the greatest influence in your child's life – greater than any church or ministry. We believe what you will find here in KIDStory@Home will revolutionize the way you engage with your children: physically, emotionally and spiritually. We believe God will transform lives as you create a relational learning environment where you and your children can become eye-witnesses and active participants in God's Story and not just distant observers. KIDStory relies on the working of the Holy Spirit as you use Jesus' method of teaching: telling stories, having interactive experiences and meaningful discussions.

These strategies are fun to learn, easy to use and share with others. You will see how it is better to listen rather than lecture ... listen to the Holy Spirit and the responses of your children. Then you can encourage them to also listen and be obedient to God's voice. KIDStory is about God transforming a life, a family and ultimately a community through His Story and His Spirit.

THE ADVANTAGES OF KIDSTORY@HOME

KIDStory can create environments where families gather together as:

- Parents take on the spiritual leadership of their children and disciple them
- Families learn and discuss the Bible Stories together which can continue throughout the week. In most churches, children and parents are learning different things
- Environments are being created where there can be open discussion and fun, engaging activities centered on the Bible Story rather than sitting passively
- Families are having their spiritual, social, physical and emotional tanks filled
- Families worship together
- Families serve and pray for others in their communities
- Children are given responsibilities and learn to lead
- Children see your faith in action as they hear your highs and lows in following Jesus.
- You can create an environment where other children and families connect with Jesus and His Story

Welcome!! May the Lord give you opportunities for your home to be a place where children and families are encountering the love of Jesus.

My Story

- We are creating a safe environment for everyone to share something personal
- Follow-up to see how each one obeyed hand questions from previous weeks.
- The simplest, yet most revealing story, is to share a high and low of the day.
- Create an environment that is fun!!
- Parents and children are engaged, where they are deepening their relationship .

God's Story

- Share any necessary background info.
- Use dramatic elements that would make the story more engaging and interactive. Use as many senses as possible especially visual objects and pictures.
- Stay Biblically accurate while keeping the story length appropriate for the children to learn so they can tell others.
- Involve the children in the story. Provide leadership opportunities for older children to take the lead.
- Allow the children to choose how the story can be told and retold.

Let's Connect

- There may be suggested questions but be in prayer for the Holy Spirit to lead.
- Use questions to connect God's Story to My Story.
- Throughout the week, move from remembering facts to what God is doing in their hearts and lives.

Huddle Up

- Prayer for each person including parents!
- Touch and bless each person as Jesus did.

My Story

This is a time to gather everyone and give an opportunity to share a personal story. You could ask a question that relates to the Bible story or simply ask for their high and low of the day.

God's Story

The first day you will want to tell the Bible Story as well as have a fun interactive retelling of the story. Each day thereafter you can engage the children with different retell activities that will interest different family members. Stay Biblically accurate while doing things that are memorable and unexpected as God did with telling His Story.

Let's Connect

Each day there is a simple question or two to engage everyone with what happened in the Bible Story and how it relates to our own personal story. They take us from our head to our heart then to hand questions for personal application.

Huddle Up

This is a time for family members to gather in close and be praying for one another in relation to what each has shared. Give thanks for their highs and pray for their lows. Close by declaring a blessing over each family member.

Every Home ... Every Day

Write these commandments that I've given you today on your hearts. Get them inside of you and then get them inside your children. Talk about them wherever you are, sitting at home or walking in the street; talk about them from the time you get up in the morning to when you fall into bed at night. Deuteronomy 6:6-7 MSG

Inherently we want to lead our children in the ways of the Lord. For so many of us we just don't know how or where to start. We are intimidated and think those in the church will do a better job though the children are there for maybe an hour a week. KIDStory is a simple strategy where everyone in your home can connect with Jesus and His Story. Having a regular routine each day creates an environment that builds trust, stability and security.

Sometime during the day we suggest you go through each of these elements:

My Story: We want to create a place where it is safe to share our personal stories and daily experiences. We want our children to not only know that we care, but how God is involved in our daily lives. A simple question can be asked that relates to something in the Bible story or have EVERYONE share what their high and low was for the day. Everyone includes parents!

God's Story: Everything is centered on God's Story - accurately telling it with interactive, fun retelling activities each night that engage everyone and help each one to learn the story.

Let's Connect: It's really important to connect the Bible Story to our personal stories. Throughout the week, we want to move from remembering some of the facts to what God is doing in our hearts and lives. By the end of the week we want the Spirit to speak to each person for the implication that God would have for each person. It will not be uncommon to have a different response from each person in the family. This is good! Follow-up in the weeks to come to see how each person is doing in their obedience to what God said.

Huddle Up: Draw your family in for prayer and a blessing. The prayer can be giving thanks for each person's high and make His presence known in their lows. The blessing can be specific to what has been discussed that day or be something done routinely like singing a song, saying a Bible verse or placing your hand on your child's shoulder or head. We want to create the environment, like Jesus did, where everyone feels welcomed, loved and blessed.

LEARNING & TELLING THE STORY

Throughout the week, our encouragement would be to take one Bible Story and spend a few minutes each day going deeper into it through retell activities and open ended questions. Everyone will be able to learn the story well enough to tell other family members and friends. Whoever is telling the story on the first day, we highly recommend learning the story well enough so it can be told as a story. The dynamics change when you can tell it versus just reading it. The Bible story can be read from a book or your Bible as a retell activity.

Learning the Story:

Read and learn the story as a story – not a long Bible verse to be memorized. Picture the story happening in your mind as you are reading through it. Here are some ways you can learn the story - there is no right or wrong way. Find a way that works best for you.

- Read & Tell: Read the story, close your Bible and tell the story out loud. Read the story to see how accurate you were. Do this several times.
- Mindmap or Outline: Take each scene or chapter in the story and outline the different things that happened in each one.
- Story Drawing: Like making a comic of the story, draw what is happening in each segment of the story.
- Act it Out: Actually act out the story while you are learning it.

Telling the Story:

When it comes time to actually tell the story to your family, remember to stay Biblically accurate. We don't want to add anything, like our interpretations, to the story or take out important parts. We follow God's example as He is the Master Storyteller. Here are some storytelling techniques He used that we can also:

- God makes things memorable; He delivered His message in ways so we would not forget it. Using some dramatic gestures, voice inflections and facial expressions make the story come alive for everyone.
- Often times God does things that are unexpected. We build anticipation when we do simple things to make the story come alive. Some examples are: using objects, costumes or changing the environment where you are telling the story.
- God uses our five senses (sight, touch, sound, smell and taste). The more senses you use in telling and retelling the Bible story, the more engaged everyone will be.

It is crucial that the children know the Story comes from the Bible and it is true. Don't be afraid to involve family members in the telling of the story and keep the content and length of the story age appropriate.

RETELLING THE STORY

You have told the story on the first day. Every other day of the week, you can use a variety of retell activities to engage everyone in learning and retelling the story. These activities should be FUN and interactive. Do different kinds of retell activities to peak different people's interests and learning styles. On the following pages you will see a variety of activities you can do each day.

GAMES

- Beach Ball: certain key questions for any Bible story can be written on a beach ball with a permanent marker. Wherever the child catches the ball is the question they need to answer. .
- Circle Toss: A ball or other soft object is tossed throughout the small group and the person who has been tossed the ball needs to tell the next thing that happened in the Bible story. Using a balloon can be quite exciting to play with as well.
- Timer: Use a watch, someone counting or an egg timer and see how much of the Bible story the group can tell in the allotted amount of time.
- Knot You: Take a 5-yard piece of rope and tie it together to make a circle. Have the kids grab onto the rope. At your command, the kids move the rope clockwise and when you say, "Stop," whoever has the knot has to answer a question you have about the Bible story or tell what happened next in the story.
- Story Cards: Write or draw the different segments of the Bible story on separate sheets of paper. Give them to different children in the class and have the children get in order of the story line. You could also give them a certain amount of time to do it in or write out 2 or more copies of the story line and have several groups of children trying to be the first group to finish.
- Musical Chairs: Set up chairs in a circle with one less than the number of people in the group. As music is being played, people move around the circle. When the music stops, everyone finds a chair. The one standing tells the next part of the story. Continue until the story is retold.
- Dice Game: Each small group sits in a circle and a child is given one dice. The child begins to retell the story. At the designated signal, the child rolls the dice and whatever number appears, the leader counts the children clockwise and when it comes to the number that has appeared on the dice, that person now begins telling the story until told to stop and they roll the dice to see who the next person is who will retell the story.

MUSIC

- Rap Review: Have the kids create a rap to the main events of the story.
- New Lyrics to a Familiar Song: Have the children pick a simple children's song and change the words so the Bible story is being told through a song.
- Rhythm: Have the group come up with a beat and then tell the story as you do the beat
- Dance: create a dance that would tell the story. Put some background music to it

ART

- Graffiti Wall: As a group, have the children write words or draw pictures which tell the story.
- Personal drawing: The children draw a color a picture of the part of the story they liked best.
- Tee Shirt Design: have each child design the front of a tee shirt that could tell the major parts of the story
- Pipe Cleaners & Play Doh/Clay: use these or other available craft items to build and retell the story
- Billboard: Design a roadside billboard of the Bible story or how you see yourself connecting with it.
- Pictionary: different parts of the story are given out and the person needs to draw it till someone guesses what it is.

DRAMA

- Act-it-Out: Assign different parts of the story to children in the group. Have them practice and then act out the story to the rest of the group.
- KIDS Storyboards: using the different flannel characters, have the children retell the story by posting the figures on the storyboard
- Charades: Without using words, the kids act out the different scenes while the audience has to guess which part of the story they are doing.
- Re-read the Bible story and come up with different sound effects and/or motions for words or actions that repeat throughout the story.
- Object(s) (ie: scarf, rope): See how many times they can use the object to tell the story. You can also give each group 3 different random objects to use in retelling the story.
- Motions: Use different motions to illustrate each segment of the story. You can assign one motion to each child or small group and they need to demonstrate their motion in the order in which it comes in the story
- Human Slide Show: Find a big cloth to use as a curtain. Two children will hold it up and then drop it when you tell them. Pick several children to be the characters in the story. For each story segment, while the curtain is up, have the children get into a position as though there were a picture or painting of that part of the story. They are to remain perfectly still and then have the cloth dropped so the rest of the group can see it. Each scene changes as you tell the story.
- Puppets: Create simple puppets from things like socks, paper plates, paper cups and sticks to retell the story

WRITING

- Storybooks: the story is retold by the child through pictures and/or words in a storybook (or comic) format
- Journals: the children are given the opportunity to just quietly sit and journal what was in the story and what it meant to them.
- Top Ten: have the kids, either as a group or individually, write out the top ten events of the story.
- Comparisons: Have each child pick one of the characters in the story that was told. Have them draft a chart that expresses how they are similar and how they are different than the Bible Character.

LET'S CONNECT: Discover and Response Questions

Hopefully you have seen where each segment of your KIDStory@Home is engaging, interactive, and giving everyone an opportunity to participate. Each time you gather together as a family, allow time for some questions. Discussion how the Bible Story relates to your personal lives with your highs and lows. Three kinds of questions are:

- Head (facts): These questions help us remember “what” happened in the story. The questions in the beginning of the week start with Head questions.
- Heart (feelings): Later in the week we move to Heart questions and exchange different feelings the story has produced in us. We answer the “so what” or “why.”
- Hands (implications): At the end of the week we are now ready for questions that allow each person to respond to the Holy Spirit in what He is asking of them. “Now what” is each person going to do with what they have learned? Responses will vary from person to person – and that is good! Discipleship will happen as you follow up with each person as to what they have done with what God has shown them.

When you ask questions, people start discovering God’s truths for themselves; it’s not just told to them. It then sinks deeper into their hearts and lives. It’s not about what you know, it’s about the child discovering and accepting God’s truths! Listed below are the questions suggested in the sample lesson. You can also ask questions specific to the Bible Story you are telling or ones listed on the following page.

HUDDLE UP: Prayer & Blessings

*May the Lord bless you and take good care of you.
May the Lord smile on you and be gracious to you.
May the Lord look on you with favor and give you peace.*
Numbers 6:24-26 NIRV

A critical moment with your family is what we are calling: Huddle Up. This is when you can gather everyone with more intentionality, with greater intimacy, to come into the Lord's presence. Some light a candle, others dim the lights and just have a night light on. If you are doing this at bedtime, maybe have the children lie down and get them settled in to go to sleep.

This is a time to pray for one another, to give thanks for everyone's Highs of the day and to ask for God's intervention in your Lows. What were some other things that came up in your discussion of the Bible Story that can be brought before the Lord where family members can be praying for one another? This is an opportunity for everyone to join together and be in God's presence. Our walk with Jesus isn't just about going to church or even coming together everyday for KIDStory@Home, but how He is always there, every moment of every day no matter where we are or who we are with.

End your time together by giving a blessing to everyone. Something supernatural happens when people are blessed. We are asking for an impartation from God to be on our children. We see this tradition throughout the Bible: Abraham with Isaac, Isaac with Jacob, Moses with Joshua, Jesus with the children and many others. It is also a time to create hope and a vision for our children. It is a time to give a physical touch that is appropriate and meaningful. It could be the holding of hands or placing your hand on your child's shoulder or head. Some families end with a special song or Bible verse. These build traditions in our family gatherings.

Let's be like Jesus and create an environment where children felt welcomed, where Jesus touched and blessed them. We can do the same for the children He has given us.

*I will bring honor to your name in every generation.
Therefore, the nations will praise You forever and ever.*
Psalm 45:17 (NLT)

The Lost Lamb

Luke 15:1-7

MY STORY

Come up with an opening question or ask everyone for their High/Low for the day.

GOD'S STORY (Day 1)

The tax collectors and sinners all came to listen to Jesus. But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law began to complain: "Look, this man welcomes sinners and even eats with them." Then Jesus told them this story.

There once was a shepherd with a hundred lambs, but one of his lambs wandered away and was lost. So the shepherd left the ninety-nine lambs out in the open field and searched in the wilderness for that one lost lamb. He didn't stop until he finally found it. With exuberant joy he raised it up and placed it on his shoulders, carrying it back with cheerful delight! Returning home, he called all his friends and neighbors together and said, 'Let's have a party! Come and celebrate with me the return of my lost lamb. It wandered away, but I found it and brought it home.'

Jesus continued, "In the same way, there will be a glorious celebration in heaven over the rescue of one lost sinner who repents, comes back home, and returns to the fold—more so than for all the righteous people who never strayed away.

The Welcome is a time to gather the children, have them feel welcomed and get connected with one another.

You want to create a safe environment where children are having fun together and everyone is involved.

Discipleship continues as personal interaction can happen with the KidConnect time and following-up on previous answers to Hand Questions. The Bible story is told in ways that everyone can imagine being there.

There is community amongst the children as they interact and connect with God through worship and His Word.

This is a time to show love and care while you disciple the children with God's Word and in response to the Spirit's leading.

Bring the club meeting to a close, creating enthusiasm to return with testimonies and friends. You may need extra time for parents to connect and children to have a play time.

GOD'S STORY (Day 1)

There was an order sent that everyone must return to their hometown to be counted. So Joseph took Mary to Bethlehem. Since there was no room for them at the inn, she had her baby in a manger.

That night there were shepherds out in the fields watching over their flocks. An angel of the Lord appeared before them and they were afraid. The angel said, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy to all the people. Today, your savior has been born. He is Christ, the Lord.

The shepherds went quickly to find Mary, Joseph and the baby. When they found them they told them everything that the angels had said. Everyone was amazed. The shepherds went back to their sheep praising God and thanking Him for everything they had seen and heard.

MY STORY

GOD'S STORY (Day 1)

Every year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the Passover Feast. When he was twelve years old, they went to the feast as they always did and after the feast days were over, they started home. The boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that Jesus was with them somewhere in the group, they traveled for a whole day. Then they began to look for him among their family and friends.

When they did not find him, they went back to Jerusalem to look for him there. After three days they found Jesus sitting in the Temple with the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and answers.

When Jesus' parents saw him, they were astonished. His mother said to him, "Son, why did you do this to us? Your father and I were very worried about you and have been looking for you."

Jesus said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand the meaning of what he said.

Jesus went with them to Nazareth and was obedient to them. But his mother kept in her mind all that had happened. Jesus grew in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and people.

Miraculous Catch

Luke 5:1-11

MY STORY

Come up with an opening question or ask everyone for their High/Low for the day.

GOD'S STORY (Day 1)

One day while Jesus was standing beside Lake Galilee, many people were pressing all around him to hear the word of God. Jesus saw two boats at the shore of the lake. The fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. Jesus got into one of the boats, the one that belonged to Simon Peter and asked him to push off a little from the land. Then Jesus sat down and continued to teach the people from the boat.

When Jesus had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Take the boat into deep water, and put your nets in the water to catch some fish."

Simon Peter answered, "Master, we worked hard all night trying to catch fish, and we caught nothing. But you say to put the nets in the water, so will. When the fishermen did as Jesus told them, they caught so many fish that the nets began to tear. They called to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats so full that they were almost sinking."

When Simon Peter saw what had happened, he bowed down before Jesus and said, "Go away from me, Lord. I am a sinful man!" He and the other fishermen were amazed at the many fish they caught, as were James and John, Simon Peter's partners.

Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid. From now on you will fish for people." When the men brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed Jesus.

GOD'S STORY (Day 1)

When Jesus got back to Galilee, a crowd of people were waiting and welcomed him there. A man named Jairus, a leader of the synagogue, came to Jesus and fell at his feet, "I beg you to come to my house. My only daughter, who is only twelve years old, is dying."

While Jesus was on his way ... someone came from Jairus' house and said to him, "Your daughter is dead. Don't bother the teacher anymore." When Jesus heard this, he said to Jairus, "Don't be afraid. Just believe, and your daughter will be well."

When Jesus went to the house, he let only Peter, John, James, Jairus and the girl's mother go inside with him. All the people were crying and feeling sad because the girl was dead, but Jesus said, "Stop crying. She is not dead; she is only asleep."

The people laughed at Jesus because they knew the girl was dead. But Jesus took hold of her hand and called to her, "My child, stand up!" Her spirit came back into her, and she stood up at once. Then Jesus ordered that she be given something to eat. Then he told them, "Don't tell anyone about this." Still, the news of this event spread throughout the entire area.

Sinful Woman Forgiven

Luke 7:36-48

MY STORY

Come up with an opening question or ask everyone for their High/Low for the day.

GOD'S STORY (Day 1)

A religious leader asked Jesus to come eat with him and so Jesus went into the Pharisee's house and sat at the table. A sinful woman who lived in the same town learned where Jesus was eating and brought a jar of perfume. She was crying and knelt behind Jesus. She began to wash his feet with her tears, and she dried them with her hair, kissing them many times and rubbing them with the perfume. When the religious leader saw this, he thought to himself, "If Jesus were a prophet, he would know that the woman touching him is a sinner!"

Jesus said to him, "I have a story to tell you." "Teacher tell me." Jesus said, "Two people owed money to the same banker. One owed 500 coins and the other owed 50. They had no money to pay what they owed, but the banker told both of them they did not have to pay him. Which person will love the banker more?" The religious person answered, "I think it would be the one who owed him the most money."

When Jesus went to the house, he let only Peter, John, James, Jairus and the girl's mother go inside with him. All the people were crying and feeling sad because the girl was dead, but Jesus said, "Stop crying. She is not dead; she is only asleep."

Jesus said to him, "You are right." Then Jesus turned toward the woman and said to the man, "Do you see this woman? When I came into your house, you gave me no water for my feet, but she washed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. You gave me no kiss of greeting, but she has been kissing my feet since I came in. You did not put oil on my head, but she poured perfume on my feet. I tell you that her many sins are forgiven, so she showed great love. But the person who is forgiven only a little will love only a little." Then Jesus said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

The followers went to Jesus and woke him, saying, "Master! Master! We will drown!" Jesus got up and gave a command to the wind and the waves. They stopped, and it became calm. Jesus said to his followers, "Where is your faith?"

The followers were afraid and amazed and said to each other, "Who is this that commands even the wind and the water, and they obey him?"

GOD'S STORY (Day 1)

Jesus took the apostles away with him so they could be alone together. But the people learned where Jesus went and followed him. He welcomed them and talked with them about God's kingdom and healed those who needed to be healed.

Late in the afternoon, the twelve apostles came to Jesus and said, "Send the people away. They need to go to the towns and countryside around here and find places to sleep and something to eat, because no one lives in this place." But Jesus said to them, "You give them something to eat."

They said, "We only have five loaves of bread and two fish from this boy, and it would take a whole year's wages to buy food for all these people," for there were about five thousand men there.

Jesus had the disciples sit everyone down on the grass. Then he took the five loaves of bread and two fish, and looking up to heaven, he thanked God for the food. Then he divided the food and gave it to the followers to give to the people.

They all ate and were satisfied, and what was left over was gathered up, filling twelve baskets.

The blind man cried out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

The people leading the group warned the blind man to be quiet. But the blind man shouted even more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stopped and ordered the blind man to be brought to him. When he came near, Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, I want to see." Jesus said to him, "Then see. You are healed because you believed."

At once the man was able to see, and he followed Jesus, thanking God. All the people who saw this praised God.

He ran ahead and he climbed a sycamore tree so he could see. When Jesus came to that place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down! I must stay at your house today." Zacchaeus came right down and welcomed him gladly. All the people saw this and began to complain, "Jesus is staying with a sinner!"

But Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "I will give half of my possessions to the poor. And if I have cheated anyone, I will pay them back four times more than what I took from them."

Jesus said to him, "Salvation has come to this house today. I came to find and save those who are lost."

So Peter and John left and found everything as Jesus had said and there they prepared the Passover meal. When the time came, Jesus and the apostles were sitting at the table. He said to them, "I wanted very much to eat this Passover meal with you before I suffer. I will not eat another Passover meal until it is given its true meaning in the kingdom of God."

Then Jesus took some bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to the apostles, saying, "This is my body, which I am giving for you. Do this to remember me." In the same way, after supper, Jesus took the cup and said, "This cup is the new agreement that God makes with his people. This new agreement begins with my blood which is poured out for you."

"Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to test all of you as a farmer sifts his wheat. I have prayed that you will not lose your faith! Help your brothers be stronger when you come back to me."

But Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and even to die with you!" But Jesus said, "Peter, before the rooster crows this day, you will say three times that you don't know me."

GOD'S STORY (Day 1)

Pilate wanted to let Jesus go free and told this to the crowd. But they shouted again, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" A third time Pilate said to them, "Why? What wrong has he done? I can find no reason to kill him. So I will have him punished and set him free." But they continued to shout, demanding that Jesus be crucified. Their yelling became so loud that Pilate decided to give them what they wanted. . he handed Jesus over to them to do with him as they wished.

As they led Jesus away, Simon, a man from Cyrene, was coming in from the fields. They forced him to carry Jesus' cross and to walk behind him.

It was about noon, and the whole land became dark until three o'clock in the afternoon, because the sun did not shine. The curtain in the Temple[f] was torn in two. Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, I give you my life." After Jesus said this, he died.

When the army officer there saw what happened, he praised God, saying, "Surely this was a good man!" When all the people who had gathered there to watch saw what happened, they returned home, beating their chests because they were so sad.

GOD'S STORY (Day 1)

Very early on Sunday, the first day of the week, the women came to the tomb, bringing the spices they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the entrance of the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

While they were wondering about this, two men in shining clothes suddenly stood beside them. The women were very afraid and bowed their heads to the ground. The men said to them, "Why are you looking for a living person in this place for the dead? Jesus is not here; he has risen from the dead. Do you remember what he told you? He said the Son of Man must be handed over to sinful people, be crucified, and rise from the dead on the third day." Then the women remembered what Jesus had said. Then the women remembered what Jesus had said.

The women left the tomb and told all these things to the eleven apostles and the other followers. ... The women told the apostles everything that had happened at the tomb. But they did not believe the women, because it sounded like nonsense. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Bending down and looking in, he saw only the cloth that Jesus' body had been wrapped in. Peter went away to his home, wondering about what had happened.

KIDStory[®]

A PROGRAM OF KIDS AROUND THE WORLD

CONNECTING KIDS TO JESUS AND HIS STORY

OF THE 2 BILLION CHILDREN IN THE WORLD UNDER THE AGE OF 14, OVER 75% OF THEM PREFER TO LEARN THROUGH THE SPOKEN WORD

KIDStory relies on Jesus' method of teaching through telling stories combined with interactive experiences and meaningful discussions. These skills are culturally universal and fun to learn and share with others. This makes KIDStory accessible and easily reproducible (for partners) both locally and globally.

We believe transformation takes place in a relational learning environment where God's Word is spoken, His Spirit guides, and a child encounters the love of Jesus by becoming an active participant in God's story and not just a distant observer. We call these environments, KIDStory Clubs. It's a place, like what Jesus created, where children feel welcomed, loved, and blessed by the leaders and ultimately the Lord Himself. It's where children have fun and are free to share what they are learning and experiencing; a place where God's presence is very real and evident. Children are not just learning from a book, but through relationships.

REACHING A UNIVERSAL AUDIENCE

The methods used to tell and retell God's story are Bible centered, fun and engaging. The questions posed by leaders are not just for retention, but for transformation of the heart and mind, leading to real life application. This gives leaders the chance to disciple each child by following up on the things that the Holy Spirit is teaching and revealing.

Whether you are in kids or youth ministry, the leader of a small group, preparing for an overseas mission trip, running a local VBS, or simply a mom, dad or grandparent; you will find this approach to learning equally refreshing and valuable as you are equipped with proven tools for effectively sharing God's Word.

CENTERED ON CORE ESSENTIALS

Children are transformed by learning who God is, who they are, and how to have a real and personal relationship with Jesus. We believe this happens through the 5 core essentials of KIDStory:

KIDSTORY WORKSHOPS

There is a critical need to raise up and equip leaders to disciple children in ways that work best for them. Basic KIDStory workshops are offered globally and throughout the United States. Throughout the training, participants learn to share the Gospel with children through dynamic storytelling – directly from the Bible. At these workshops every participant can expect to learn:

- ✓ Teaching skills that bring the stories of the Bible to life
- ✓ Fun, interactive ways to hear, learn and retell God's Word to include: games, music, art & drama
- ✓ Proven ways to facilitate discussions that provide a place where the Holy Spirit can penetrate children's hearts rather than giving pat, predictable answers
- ✓ How to create learning environments where children become active participants in God's redemptive story instead of just distant observers
